WILL McLEOD

New Works a solo exhibition

October 12 through November 3, 2024
Reception Saturday, October 12, 4-7pm

McLeod, born 1985, in North Carolina, lives and works in Hudson, New York. He is a multidisciplinary artist with a previous fashion career, which often informs the development of his practice. His paintings and drawings become his aesthetic blueprints. 2-D works become cloth panels to further illustrate his story telling. These works explore McLeod's favored cast of colors, symbols, and treatments that weave through the mediums in his practice. McLeod strives for his art to exude a quality of equanimity between method and magic. He has shown locally and NYC. This is his first exhibit at The Fireplace Project.
